REVOLUTION IN TEXAS.

It will be remembered, that, in the beginning of her revolution, in 1836, Texas offered large bounties in land to volunteers to serve in her armies. We can now offer, to the survivors, and heirs of those who thus served, the recovery of all the lands promised by the Government of Texas. We are also prepared to prosecute all Texas land claims regardless of date or character, whether SPANISH, MEXICAN, or AMERICAN. BOUNTY, SCOUT, or HEADMONEY. Having complete access to the Master rolls, Maps, Records, and other data in the Public Offices at Austin city, we enjoy superior advantages for investigations of all kinds in regard to claims. We will give particular attention to the recovery of LANDS illegally sold, for taxes or otherwise, and to estates which have suffered from inattention or mismanagement of agents or administrators.

To persons having LAND CERTIFICATES for LOCATION, we can offer particular inducements. Our thorough and intimate knowledge of the vacant lands and surveys of the state, obtained from personal inspection, insures the most favorable locations, and perfect titles. LONG EXPERIENCE, and close attention to the LAND SYSTEM and an accurate knowledge of the different classes of titles, together with the large amount of land registered in our office for sale, enables us to furnish prompt and reliable information, and assistance to persons desiring good homes, and to afford superior advantages to those wishing to make SAFE and PROFITABLE INVESTMENTS.

We are offering for SALE LANDS in every part of the state—improved and unimproved, every variety, and in tracts to suit purchasers; also town and city lots—in short every kind of real estate on the most favorable terms. To persons having land in Texas for sale, we would say, that we keep books, in which are registered descriptions (furnished by the owners, or obtained by personal inspection) and full exhibits of title &c., of all tracts to be sold, thus furnishing a cheap and effective mode of advertising part of the state, ascertaining its value, and reporting fully. We invite the attention of MERCHANTS, HOUSES, and individuals to our office as furnishing a speedy and effective mode of collecting.

By activity, energy, and fidelity to the interests of our employers we hope to merit the confidence of the business public. Office on Congress Avenue. RAYMOND, FREEMAN, & Co., June 29, 1854-16 by.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE, KENTUCKY.

THIS Institution occupies a high rank among Western Colleges. Its Library, Cabinet, Museum, and apparatus are unsurpassed. Its literary course is the same as that of Yale College, while its scientific course embraces all the best portions of the course at West Point.

For young men designed for practical business there is a course of three years in which a thorough knowledge is imparted in agricultural Chemistry, Physiology, Zoology, Practical Engineering, Principles of Commerce, and the Book Keeping. In this practical feature the College is believed to be unequalled. Its high aim is to furnish American scholars, and American business men. The rapidly increasing number of Students in attendance is proof of its high rank and efficiency.

This seat of learning is no mere experiment, whose permanence is doubtful, and whose diploma is therefore of uncertain value. It is in a position to exercise and maintain a wholesome discipline without the fear of extinguishing scholarship and manly in their deportment. It has boarding arrangements adapted to all classes of students; and so adjusted as to avoid the dangers inseparable from the practice of crowding 150 or 200 young men into one building. Students for the ministry can board for about $40 per College year. Others of known good moral habits, for about $65 or 70; while those who may prefer board in private families can do so at from $80 to 100. No student is allowed to board in any family but such as the Faculty shall approve; and a strict but kind supervision is exercised by the faculty over every student wherever he may board.

The scholastic year is divided into two sessions. The first commences on the third Monday in September; the second, on the first Monday in February.

COMMENCEMENT DAY

Occurs on the last Thursday in June. Tuition $20 per session.

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,

No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attained, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, without fail, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

H. W. Chaney, Millersburg, Ky., Oct. 16, 1852, said: "Having sold your Bitters some time, I find it has given satisfaction in every instance that has come under my notice."

Nelson & Edwards, Salvisa, Ky., June 20, 1851, said: "We rejoice to inform you that this justly celebrated medicine has fully maintained the exalted reputation which has been given it, and having tested its virtues we unhesitatingly say it eminently deserves it."

J. T. & J. W. Berry, Uniontown, Ky., July 21, 1852, said: "We have heard of many cures performed by the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, and believe it to be a valuable medicine."

J. Grant Irvine, Ky., June 26, 52, said: "We have succeeded in introducing your Hoofland Bitters, physicians and others purchase them by the half dozen and dozen."

Dr. P. Fatio & Bro., Knoxville, Tenn., April 9, 1851, said: "Your Bitters are now used, so far as we have been able to learn, has been benefited."

These Bitters are ENTIRELY VEGETABLE, they invigorate and strengthen the system, never prostrate it, and can be used for Infants as well as adults.

HARTER'S

SPANISH MIXTURE:

The Great Purifier of the Blood!

Not a particle of Mercury in it.

AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obsolete Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Blisters, Boils, Chronic Sore Eyes, King Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Disorders, Lumbago, Spinal Complaints, and all Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Impurity in Life, or Impurity of the Blood.

This valuable Medicine, which has become celebrated for the number of extraordinary cures effected through its agency, has induced the proprietors, at the urgent request of their friends, to offer it to the public, which they do with the utmost confidence in its virtues and wonderful curative properties. The following certificates, selected from a large number, are, however, stronger testimony than the mere word of the proprietors; and are all from gentlemen well known in their localities, and of the highest respectability, many of them now residing in the city of Richmond, Virginia.

F. BOYDEN, Esq., of the Exchange Hotel, Richmond, known to every one who has seen the Medicine called CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE administered in over a hundred cases in nearly all the diseases for which it is recommended, with the most astonishing good results. He says it is the most extraordinary medicine he has ever seen.

AGUE AND FEVER—GREAT CURE.—I hereby certify, that for three years I had Ague and Fever of the most violent description. I had several Physicians, took large quantities of Quinine, Mercury, and I believe all the Tonics advertised, but all without any permanent relief. At last I tried CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, two bottles of which effectually cured me, and I am happy to say I have had neither Chills or Fevers since. I consider it the best Tonic in the world, and the only medicine that ever reached my case.

JOHN LONGDEN, Beaver Dam, near Richmond, Va.

C. B. LUCK, Esq., now in the city of Richmond, and for many years in the Post Office, has such confidence in the astonishing efficacy of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, that he has bought upwards of 50 bottles, which he has given away to the afflicted. Mr. Luck says he has never known it to fail when taken according to directions.

Dr. MINGE, a practicing Physician, and formerly of the City Hotel, in the city of Richmond, says he has witnessed in a number of instances the effects of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, which were most truly surprising. He says in a case of Consumption, dependent on the Liver, the good effects were wonderful indeed.

SAMUEL M. DRINKER, of the firm of Drinker & Morris, Richmond, was cured of Liver complaint of 8 years standing, by the use of two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

GREAT CURE OF SCROFULA.—The Editors of the Richmond Republican had a servant employed in their press room, cured of violent Scrofula, combined with Rheumatism, which entirely disabled him from work. Two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture made a perfect cure of him, and the Editors, in a public notice, say they cheerfully recommend it to all who are afflicted with any disease of the blood.

STILL ANOTHER CURE OF SCROFULA.—I had a very valuable boy cured of Scrofula by Carter's Spanish Mixture.

Truly valuable medicine. JAMES M. TAYLOR, Conductor on the R. & P. R. R. Co., Richmond, Va.

SALT RHEUM OF 20 YEARS STANDING CURED

MR. JOHN THOMPSON, residing in the city of Richmond, was cured by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, of Salt Rheum, which he had nearly 20 years, and which all the physicians of the city could not cure. Mr. Thompson is a well known merchant in the city of Richmond, Va., and his cure is most remarkable.

WM. A. MATTHEWS, of Richmond, Va., had a servant cured of Syphilis, in the worst form, by Carter's Spanish Mixture. He says he cheerfully recommends it, and considers it an invaluable medicine.

RICHARD E. WEST, of Richmond, was cured of Scrofula, and what Physicians called confirmed Consumption, by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

EDWARD BURTON, Commissioner of the Revenue, says he has seen the good effects of Carter's Spanish Mixture in a number of Syphilitic cases, and says it is a perfect cure for that horrible disease.

WM. G. HARWOOD, of Richmond, Va., cured of Old Sores and Ulcers, which disabled him from walking, took a few bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, and was enabled to walk without a crutch, in a short time permanently cured.

THE IMPORTED BULL

PATHFINDER

WILL be permitted to serve a few fine Cows at twenty five dollars to ensure a cow with calf.

Not more than ten cows can be received before the first of July, as his engagements are nearly complete up to that time.

In offering the services of this bull to the breeders of fine blooded Cattle, we invite their most critical attention to his pedigree, as being if not unequalled, certainly unsurpassed in the variety and purity of its crosses, by that of any animal ever imported into America.

His pedigree on the dam's side will be found in the Kentucky Cultivator. The pedigrees of his sires are much too long for insertion in any public print. We will therefore only state now, that among his most immediate Grandfathers in the Herd Book, are to be found the names of such bulls, as Buchanan Hero (3238), SIR THOMAS FAIRFAX (5196) Norfolk (3277) & Bates' second Hubback (1423) through whom he descends in a direct line from Mr. Bates' celebrated Cow Duchess Ist, the great original of what is known as the "Duchess TRIBE" of short horns.

The Bulls named above were all winners of prizes in England and accurate Engravings of the first three are given in the Herd Book, from which breeders may determine accurately the merits and demerits of this strain of stock.

The pedigree of Pathfinder is peculiarly exempt from the evils of too close breeding, indeed no "in and in" cross can be found in it, and we therefore have every reason to anticipate if not of constitution and symmetry of form in his calves.

Cows sent from a distance will receive every attention, but we will incur no liability for accidents.

ABOLITION OUTRAGE.

A gentleman who arrived here yesterday gave us the following account of an Abolition outrage that occurred in the town of Salem, Ohio, on the Pittsburg and Cleveland railroad, a few days ago. Mr. Robinson and family, of Memphis, were passengers in a train from Pittsburg, which had made a temporary stop in Salem. Mr. R. stepped out of the car to buy some fruit for his family, and during his absence a large number of negroes, headed by a white who is said to be a Cincinnati Main street merchant, entered it, and by force took away a colored servant girl about 12 years of age, who had been given to Mrs. Robinson by an uncle in North Carolina. The girl caught Mrs. R. around the neck, but she was unceremoniously torn away from her. After her capture, the negroes used all kinds of exultations and even insults towards Mr. and Mrs. R. We understand that it is Mr. Robinson's intention to seek redress in court.

Since the above we have received the Cleveland Herald, a strong anti-slavery paper. It has the following in regard to the affair:

We are no apologists for slavery, but at the same time despise rowdism and blackguardism when used by fanatics in their rash and illegal efforts to carry out their mistaken notions of philanthropy.

Yesterday when the cars arrived at Salem, in Columbiana county, from Pittsburg, a crowd had gathered at the depot, a dispatch from Pittsburg having informed them that a slave girl was on board under charge of her master and mistress.

When the cars stopped, a big negro stepped into them, and accosting the girl, asked her if she was a slave. She made no reply, but her mistress answered that she was. Thereupon the black ruffian seized her, and she, clinging to her mistress's neck, begged most piteously not to be torn away; but the black fellow violently tore her away, and in the effort bruised the lady's neck severely, and carried the child out of the car on one arm, and flourished a revolver in the other hand, amid the plaudits of the excited crowd.

The master of the child was not just then in the cars, and, upon hearing of the rescue, offered to go before any officer and execute free papers, if the girl wished to be free, leaving the matter entirely with the girl. But the mob would listen to no such thing. The child's screams were heard above the tumult begging to go back, so that she could again see her mother, who belongs to the same owner.

The life of the owner was threatened, and he dared not remain over, but went on in the cars to carry grief to the mother of the girl. This is an outrage, and the people of Columbiana owe it to themselves to wipe out this stain. That long-haired, brainless C. C. Burleigh was on hand, and made a harangue to the crowd. The Cincinnati Commercial adds the following particulars:

When the cars stopped, a crowd had gathered, and Blackwell [Cincinnati merchant] entered the car containing the slave, followed by the committeemen, among whom was a huge negro. Mr. B. and the negro—after the master had stepped out of the car—approached the Southern lady and her servant girl, and the negro inquired of the latter whether she was a slave. The child was frightened, and did not speak. Mrs. Robinson, the lady on the question being repeated, replied in the affirmative. Mr. Blackwell then asked the child, repeatedly, whether she would like to be free, and thinks that he drew a response of "yes."

Upon this with a grand flourish, he took hold of the child, lifting her forcibly from the seat, and, as if reciting a declamation: "Madam, I must inform you that, agreeably to the constitution and laws of Ohio, this child is free."

Mr. B. might have went on with his oration, perhaps, but he was interrupted by the clasp of strong fingers about his throat, and handing the child to his negro brother-in-arms, who dragged it out of the cars, he looked around and discovered that the hand at his throat belonged to Mr. Samuel B. Keys, of this city, who said, "Blackwell, Blackwell, what are you about here? I know you for one of the Abolitionists down in Cincinnati, who care never to give any money to free slaves."

Mr. B. dissented from this remark in the strongest negative term known; and presently he discovered the appreciation in which his folly was likely to be held, in fact that one of his old acquaintances, a lawyer of this city, refused to recognize him as a friend, saying that he had seen enough of him.

When the cars moved off, the rowdy philanthropists, fired their pistols in the air, and made vociferous manifestations of exultations. The girl is said to have been committed to the care of wealthy Quakers, and it has been determined to give her superior education. The move is promoted, we presume by the internal shame which must be felt by the gallant committeemen for their outrageous and silly proceedings.

Yesterday morning Mr. Robinson, in company with Mr. Ferris, a down-town merchant of this city, with whom he had had business transactions, called on Mr. Blackwell, and a long conversation ensued in which nothing very beligerent was said or done. Mr. Robinson proposed that if the Abolitionists would bring the girl to town he would have her examined before a court as to her wishes, and if she desired to stay in Ohio he would give her free papers. But Blackwell considered that the girl was already free, and that a journey to this city and the ceremony of going before a court would be superfluous, and Mr. Robinson left. Mr. Ferris took occasion to express his thorough detestation of such a kidnapping operation as Mr. Blackwell had figured in, and threatened to publish him in all the Southern cities. Upon which Mr. B. offered to pay a large per centage on the cost of the advertisements. We charge him nothing this notice. In justice to Mr. B., it must be stated that he apologized, or attempted to do so, to the lady, for his rudeness.

The Southern gentlemen concerned in this affair was Mr. J. J. Robinson, of Memphis, who is now in this city and stopping at the Dennison House. It happened not to be a black skinned ruffian who wickedly and foolishly tore the girl from her mistress, to whom she clung, but Mr. Henry B. Blackwell, of the firm of Coombs, Ryland, & Blackwell, hardware merchants, on Main street, below Third, in this city. Mr. Blackwell's statement of the matter we understand to be about this. On the dispatch being received at Salem from Pittsburg, the convention had a committee appointed to see that "the constitution and laws of Ohio should not be violated."

A meeting was held at night a subscription of $65 raised for the benefit of the child, and it was christened Abby Kelly Salem.

Advice to Young Men.

"Study now to be wise; and in all your gettings get understanding. And especially would I urge upon your heart-bounded, soul-wrapped attention, that Book upon which all feelings are concentrated, all opinions, which enlightens the judgment, while it inflames the sentiments, and soothes the imagination in songs upon the harp of the 'sweetest songster of Israel.' That Book which gives you a faithful insight to your heart, and consecrates its character in.

"Shrines Such as the keen tooth of time can never touch."

Would you know the effect of that Book upon the heart? It purifies its thoughts and sanctifies its joys; it nerves and strengthens for sorrows and misadventures in life, and when those shall have ended, and the twilight of death is spreading its dew damp upon the wasting features, it breaks upon the last glad throb the bright and streaming light of Eternity's morning. Oh, have you ever stood beside the couch of a dying saint and.

"Without a sigh A change of feature or a shaded smile, He gave his hand to the stern messenger, And as a glad child seeks his father's arms, Went home."

Then, you have seen the concentrated influence of this Book. Would you know its name? It is the book of books—its author, God—its theme, Heaven, Eternity—The Bible. Read it, search it. Let it be the first upon the shelves of your library, and first in the affections of your heart—Search the scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they which testify of me. Oh! if there be sublimity in the contemplation of God—if there be grandeur in the displays of eternity—if there be anything enabling and purifying in the revelation of man's salvation, search the scriptures for they are they which testify these things.—Baptist Recorder.

Mr. FRENCH.

Dear Sir—

Having enjoyed the privilege and pleasure of attending the Examination of the pupils of the above named Institution of learning, during the last week of June last, I write out in full, a notice of the excellence that marked the various performances of the young ladies composing the said school, giving the names, residences and themes of those who read, on that occasion, their own beautiful, choice, and (for young ladies) unsurpassed compositions. That notice I sent to Dr. McFerrin for publication in the Nashville Christian Advocate, which, however, has not appeared in that paper. The good Dr. had, I suppose, what no deemed good reasons for not permitting it to appear in the journal he controls.

That notice may have been too long; yet one, at least, occupying two or three columns, making favorable mention of some other school, has been admitted into the Advocate.

That notice may have seemed too special and minute; yet notices equally so, in reference to other schools, have found a place in his paper.

That notice may have been regarded as being too highly colored; yet, in all its shades and tints is possessed the peculiar property of having been marked by truth.

That notice may have been buried under a pile of communications which the Dr. deemed more worthy of his columns; yet if those that have since appeared in the Advocate, in regard to schools, are those which crowded mine out, I can only say the Dr. and I do not always agree in point of taste.

I regret the non-appearance of my communication on account of having voluntarily made promises, to several young ladies, after the Examination, to notice favorably, their unsurpassed productions and I, also, regret it on account of the disappointment felt by others, who had heard me express myself as being highly pleased; yea, delighted, at the amount and variety of knowledge manifested by the young ladies, during the Examination, marked, as it was, at every step, by an exceedingly satisfactory evidence of care and profound instruction on the part of their teachers.

Sir, please be so kind as to publish this explanatory letter, in the Herald, in order that I may stand fairly and properly before those to whom I promised what they have not yet had the privilege of reading—even a very honorable notice, (so far as language is concerned,) of their highly meritorious performances.

The above Institution commenced its 50th or 60th Session on Monday, the 4th instant, with a larger number of pupils than ever attended it the first week of any of its previous Sessions. Many improvements have been made, during vacation, in the buildings of the Institution. They will be more convenient than ever before.

Much regard has been had to comfort both for warm and cold weather. The amiable and excellent Mrs. Julia A. Tavis is still Principal; Mrs. Allen, an experienced teacher, for years connected with the Institution, and Miss Sarah Haines, a graduate of Maine Wesleyan Seminary, who comes well and highly recommended as the principal assistants in the Academic department. Miss Sallie Bayles has charge of the Junior classes; and her previous unexceptionable character as a teacher is a guarantee for the future. Mrs. Arabella Martin, a sister to Mrs. Tavis will take charge of pupils in Drawing, of whom it may be said she nobly contends, as an instructor, for the laurels won by her more widely known sister. B. P. Tavis is teacher of Mathematics. He is both a gentleman and scholar, possessing all the quariter in modo of the former blended with all that devotion to science that makes him a noble son of a worthy mother. Professor John Candy is principal teacher of Music, assisted by Miss Sallie Smith of Vicksburg, Mississippi, a graduate of Science Hill. Mr. Candy, it is well known, stands in the first class in his profession, while Miss Smith has won the esteem, if not the love of all her former class-mates. And without intending to depreciate, even by implication, any one of the many truly valuable schools, now in Kentucky, engaged in impressing the minds and hearts of our daughters I wish to be permitted to say, that in my opinion, no school for the education of young ladies, in the Union, has higher claim upon an intelligent county than has Science Hill Academy.

Imported Cattle for Kentucky.

We visited the Antarctic, at the foot of Wall street, yesterday, to look at the imported cattle mentioned in Tuesday's Tribune. Owing to the difficulty of getting a berth at our crowded wharves, the ship was not able to discharge the stock yesterday—that will be done to day, and they will be taken directly over to Bergen, to go forward to their new home in the West, by the Erie road this evening. The lot consists of the following animals, owned by the Kentucky Stock Importing Company, formed by about a dozen gentlemen of Fayette, Scott, and Bourbon counties: Five bulls, two of them three years old, three of them one year old, and one of them costing 200 guineas. Six cows and one calf; one of the cows nearly ready to drop another. Eight heifers, one and two years old; one of the yearling heifers cost $500, and is remarkable for her size and beauty. She is nearly all red. Fifty-four Outswold sheep; some of the bucks being unusually large. Eighteen swine, one pair of which is large enough to suit the breeders of monsters in Kentucky. One Cleveland bay stallion that cost 1,100, and which is very fine horse of that excellent breed. Another lot, belonging to Col. Wm. Alexander, of Woodford county, consists of three bulls, one of them three years old, and two one year; four cows; eight heifers.

The horned cattle are all of the short horned Durham variety, and some of them are of superior quality, and the whole stock have made the voyage in the finest condition we have ever seen arrive. The most of them look as lively as though they had been in stables on shore. The ship is broad on the beam, and the cattle arranged in stables under the poop-deck, with their heads to a broad alley in the centre, and have been evidently well fed and cared for by the person in charge.

The horse has a large stall on deck midships, and the sheep occupy plenty of room between decks forward.

Mr. James Bagg, of Scott county, who went out as agent of the company, with 20,000 to make the purchase, came back by the Antarctic, accompanied by the Englishman by the name of Harris, with a number of feeders to look after the stock, and it is probably owing to that we find them in such excellent condition.

Mr. Bagg also brought over a Welch pony and a cage of ferrets. The only loss was three sheep. The feed was plenty of hay, with oil-cake shiv-stuff, and some grain. Several of the bulls and cows are better beef than we generally find at Bull's Head. Several of them were prize animals at the shows in their own counties. The horse is the best that could be selected in the north of England.

The sheep number 8 rams and 49 ewes. Some of them cost 40 guineas each. The swine are of the improved Yorkshire and Liverpool breed. This is Mr. Alexander's sixteenth importation, consequently he has done much to improve the stock of Kentucky.

The English papers speak of this lot of cattle as one of the best that has been shipped, and no expense has been spared in the purchase or provisions for the voyage. We hope they will reach home equally safe, and that the importers will be rewarded in money and just commendations for their enterprise.—N. Y. Tribune.

PUBLICITY TO CRIMES.—The Post and Express have touched upon the objections brought against the journals for the publications of the particulars of crimes and outrages. We have so often heard the press attacked in a pseudo moralizing strain, because of the publicity it gives such events, that it is worth while to say a word on this subject.

The business of a newspaper is to record the news—the good, the bad and the indifferent.—"Happy," says Montaigne, is the nation whose history is full, and this remark is certainly true so far as that times of war, famine pestilence and public calamity generally, infinitely of exciting details, of heroic individuals than, the serene periods of peace. The news of each day, therefore, is mainly exciting for its darker sad events. The quiet growth of an idea, a person, or a community will be read with interest by a few, but a bombardment, earthquake, conflagration or aggravated crime, by many. If a newspaper left out its list of horrors it would incontinently be bankrupt. Saints would find it dull, and moralists vote it a bore. The painting of the darkest side of human nature is essential to the dramatic element; and the dramatic element essential to the interest of literature. No book which the virtuous delight to read is free from the description of abominable passions; and the most popular reading is that which draws our tears in learning the depths into which poor humanity may be hurled by deserting the narrow path of rectitude. The Post well observes that the Bible, so far from ignoring crime, deals fully in its details. We may add to this that the greater the crime the more harrowing the interest of its writings, and we have only to instance that of the crucifixion—Take, too, the pre-eminent dramatic writer, Shakespeare. His most perfect tragedy, "Macbeth," is an ineffable, artistic delineation of crime from its commencement to its culmination. And all his tragedies are pictures of crime published, and morals, such as they were understood in his time, vindicated. So, too, not a comedy without the milder form of iniquity—greater of deflection from the right line perfect ability—displayed, and finally righted by what he considered practical justice. The sublime epic of Milton's Paradise lost, is another precious record of immense crime, distancing, in a single one of its twelve books, a whole file of a modern newspaper, so far as the details of sin go. Novels, too, all have the diabolical elements in them—not excepting Goldsmith's virtuous idol, the Vicar of Wakefield. It is, therefore, rather late in the historical day to denounce journals for doing what every author out of the exact sciences does, and what is indispensable to his success.

OUTRAGEOUS AFFAIR.—A shooting affair took place on the Fair Grounds near this city on Thursday last, during the exhibition, between George H. Thomas, of Mt. Sterling, and Thomas Buford, of Woodford. The weapons were Colt's Revolvers. The parties, we understand, had a fight on the grounds early in the day, which ended in the exchange of a few blows, and a separation by the bystanders. They then armed themselves, and met again between 1 and 2 o'clock, when the firing commenced, and continued until each party had discharged the contents of a six barreled pistol. They were then about to close with bowie knives, but were restrained by the crowd. Thomas received a ball in his thigh, causing a slight wound; Buford escaped unhurt.

Mr. Thomas Ferguson, of this county, it is said, attempted to interfere in the affair, and was knocked down by Capt. Abram Buford; a brother of Thomas Buford, and received a severe cut in the head with a bowie knife in the hands of Thomas Buford, who had managed to escape from the persons who had seized him.

But this was not all of this shameful occurrence. Two negroes on the ground were shot by the belligerents—one a negro girl belonging to Dr. S. M. Letcher who received a severe wound in her mouth, which is feared fatally—the other a negro boy belonging to Henry Bell Esq., who was shot in the arm, producing fortunately only a slight wound. The only matter of astonishment, however, is that each of the ten or dozen shots had not taken effect upon some of the numerous persons, males and females and female children and who were congregated in the immediate vicinity.

We have but a remark or two to make in regard to this affair. Those who were concerned in it have but a faint conception of the deep feeling of indignation of which the occurrence inspired in that assemblage. That such a place and such a time should be chosen to settle private quarrels, with deadly weapons, in the presence of timid women, to say nothing of the danger to those around, was well fitted to arouse a feeling which to the honor of our population was not carried into execution. The Fair Grounds are dedicated to the exhibition of works of art and the productions of peaceful industry. Our city is full of intelligent strangers. We have perhaps not a very enviable reputation in some particulars now. Will this add to it? We do not know that we have ever in the course of our long editorial career, been called on to record any transaction with feelings of deeper regret and humiliation.

We stop not to ask who was right or who was wrong. That is the business of the law. We look at it simply as a desecration of an occasion sacred, and perhaps second only, to the desecration of the church of God, when used and devoted to the purposes of pious meditation and prayerful thoughts.

Since the above was in type, we understand that the affair will undergo an investigation before the Hon. B. F. Graves, Presiding Judge of the County Court, this morning at 10 o'clock.—Observer.

OUTRAGEOUS SHOOTING AND BOWIE KNIFE AFFAIR AT LEXINGTON, KY.—A WOMAN AND TWO MEN WOUNDED.—We learn from gentlemen from Lexington, last evening, that a most disgraceful and bloody affair occurred at the Fair Ground, in the vicinity of that city yesterday, in which a negro woman, the property of Dr. Letcher, was shot in the mouth. Mr. Thomas Ferguson was literally scalped with a bowieknife in the hands of Mr. Chas. Buford, and George H. Thomas, of Mount Sterling, was shot in the thigh by Thos. Buford, of Woodford.

The origin and particulars of this affair, as we are informed, are as follows: Messrs. G. H. Thomas and Thos. Buford had a regular fist fight in the morning in which Thomas was worsted. He proceeded to town and returned a little after 12 o'clock, to the fair ground, in the vicinity of the ladies' stand, surrounded by five hundred people, where he again encountered his opponent, Buford, and drawing a revolver fired four or six shots, one informant thinks six, but the telegraph report says four, which were returned by Buford with another revolver. In the melee the negro girl was shot in the mouth, the ball passing out at the neck, inflicting a very dangerous wound, and Thomas was shot in the thigh. A second pistol was handed to Thomas, by Thos. Ferguson, when Chas. Buford drew a bowieknife and fell upon Ferguson, inflicting a terrible gash on his head, and it was thought his eye was cut out.

The shots were fired indiscriminately into the crowd, chiefly women, and it was a miracle that no one else was hit. Jno. J. Crittenden and Governor Letcher were in close proximity to the belligerents, and upon hearing the bullets whistling about their ears, concluded the parties were in earnest, and made a hasty retreat from the scene of action. The ladies were terribly alarmed at this outrage perpetrated in their midst, and the utmost consternation prevailed among them for some time. Such scenes of violence are of too common occurrence in Kentucky, and it is to be hoped the authorities of Lexington, will make an example of the guilty parties.—Courier.

THE CROPS AND THE DROUTH.—It seems to us that there is a good deal of unnecessary alarm and talk upon the subject of short crops, and the prospect of a famine in our country. It is true that in a portion of the United States, from about the middle of Indiana, Ohio and Illinois, to the middle of Tennessee, the corn crop will fall short of the general average, but we think not so much so, as the general impression would imply. North and South of these lines, as far as we can glean from the papers published in those regions, there will be more than an average crop. In Iowa and Wisconsin, and northern Ohio and Indiana and Illinois the corn is finer than has been for years. The same is true in regard to Texas and all the Southern states which raise corn as a staple. Even here, in Kentucky, the crop is not so far below the average as the panic among our farmers would indicate. In the mountain districts, South and North, we have cheering news, for we have the best authority, that in many places in those districts, they have not known drouth, and the crops give finer promise than they have for years. Even in our own county (Franklin) we know of regions that have not suffered, and where the yield will be greater than it has been for years back.

In addition to this, there is quite a large surplus on hand from the last year's product in all parts of the Union, where a surplus has usually been raised.

The early crops, wheat, oats, &c., have yielded unusually abundant throughout the entire Union, and we see no reason for the present high price of flour, and other articles of provision. Neither can we see any reason why (as is the case at present here) that fattened hogs should command from four to four and a half dollars per hundred, while stock hogs are offered freely at one dollar, gross. In this region, meat is plenty; and with the corn that has been raised, as many hogs can be fattened as heretofore. The knowing ones of this county are accordingly purchasing all the stock hogs that they can, with the absolute certainty, of realizing a fine per centum on the investment.—Yeoman.

PUTNAM, FOR SEPTEMBER.

Many of our readers, will have carefully noticed the article in Putnam's Magazine for September, headed "Our Parties and Politics." Who or what the writer is we have no means of knowing, further than that he is a man of ability, well versed in our political history.—A Free Soiler, and perhaps, a Democrat.—We give some extracts from his article:

"It is no offence to the Whigs, we trust, for indeed it is only repeating the frequent avowals of their own leading exponents to say, that as a party they are pretty much defunct. Whatever uses their organization may have subserved in the course of our political history, and nobody will deny them some merits, however splendid the talent by which their long but losing struggle has been illustrated, from the day in which their policy was inaugurated by Hamilton, until that in which its funeral discourse was uttered in 'a fine rich brogue,' by General Scott, it has never succeeded in becoming, for more than a year or two at a time, a predominant party. It has been able, on occasions, to carry its principles into effect, but not the satisfaction of a permanent majority. Its distinguished measures have been, on the other hand, repeatedly and unequivocally condemned. Not the most sanguine adherent can now hope to see them revived. The questions of a National Bank, of a Protective Tariff, of Internal Improvements, of the Distribution of the Public Lands, are adjudicated questions; no court exists wherein to bring an appeal; and the wisest thing for those who have been worsted in the controversy, is to do what the most of them have done—submit. Their once great and accomplished leaders sleep in honorable graves, no exigencies of state will ever again awaken the solemn eloquence of Webster, nor the clarion voice of Clay ever again summon his lieges to the battle. The masters are dead and their followers are dispersed or at feud; or should they rally again, it can only be, under other names and for deeper and far deeper and nobler objects. A remnant of the camp of former times, a forlorn hope with Millard Fillmore as the drum major, may strive to keep the old organism alive; but it is clear, in the present aspect of affairs, that it cannot possess more than a semi-vitality, useless for good and painful to behold."

Now we presume the Democrats will all agree to this, whether all the Whigs will or not. Certainly, the questions above specified,—the old party issues, are all adjudicated, and we presume finally. Such we suppose is the opinion of all enlightened Whigs.

Our author divides the Democratic party into two sections, to the first of which, we suppose him to belong:

"The Democrats of the purer stamp, the real Democrats as we have called them, are like the Whigs, in a state of comparative dissolution; or rather, they are scattered through their party at large, and elsewhere, as leaves through meal, without having an effective control over it, or perhaps connection. They may be described as Democrats who still abide by the original principles of Democracy, who represent the popular instincts, who cling to living ideas of justice, and equal rights and progress, and who refuse to follow in a pell-mell abandonment of themselves to the seductions of the slave holders. They are not few in number, as we are inclined to think, either at the north or the south, comprising, as we maintain, a majority of the young men of the nation, yet uncorrupted by official contacts, as well as possessing the sympathies of many among parties which go by another name; but, having no separate organization any where, they are sadly overborne by the practised managers of the old organization, who wield the machinery of party action, and consequently of power. In their external or immediate pretensions they are not formidable, but in the might of their sentiments they have already captured the future. A steady continuance in integrity, a deaf ear turned to the charnelings of the adders of office, an eagerness to consult, amid all the shiftings of policy, the fresh impulses of the honest young heart of the nation, will, ere long, gather about them the intellect, the virtue, and the popular instinct of right, which are the redeeming elements of states."—Putnam's Magazine.

THE MAN WHO DID NOT KNOW HIS FARM WAS ADVERTISED.—The Ogdensburg Sentinel tells a story of a subscriber who lately stopped his paper, because it contained too many advertisements, and shortly after had his farm advertised and sold for non-payment of taxes, before he knew it. He succeeded in redeeming his property, at a considerable cost, and then concluded to renew his subscription to the Sentinel, which was the only paper that had the news.

We have been permitted to make the following extract from the letter of a ci-vicant Kentucky whig, now in Indiana, to a friend in this town. It will probably interest our readers.

Indianapolis, Sept. 6th, 1854.

DEAR SIR,

You asked me for an account of the Nebraska meeting to-day.

It affords me infinite pleasure to write about it, and I sincerely wish that every whig south of Mason & Dixon's line could have been present and heard

the broad national and patriotic stand taken by every man who addressed the meeting. I have been inclined to Democracy for some time myself, but now I am not at all.

I am a democrat certain, from this out.

The case is too plain. The democratic party of the north, desire the support of the south, and I don't see how any whig,

not totally blind to reason and all generous impulses, could hold out against what

I have seen and heard to-day.

Bright, Fane, Douglas, Willard and

Pugh, all addressed the meeting and all in the same spirit, and their addresses were received with a degree of enthusiasm that astonished me. I have met with several Kentuckians here to-day, and they are all delighted. Douglass was received with great cordiality, was serenaded and attended at the ground by a fine band of music, which added also to the spirit of the meeting.

He discussed the merits of the Nebraska bill at length and ably, and was often responded to by acclamations from the crowd. Gen. Fane spoke of the indignity offered Douglass at Chicago; said

there were at least 15,000 people there present, who were anxious to listen to him and were, until interrupted by a crowd of some 150 men who came into the meeting armed to the teeth and making all sorts of noises, producing such confusion that the meeting had to ad-journal.

He stated that he was prepared to prove what he said, that the crowd was hired by the abolition press of Chicago,

at an expense of near $3,000, to go there and do what they did. Douglass told them to their teeth that they were a lawless mob, and all such mobs were made up of cowards. This I heard him say privately. He has cause to be proud of to-day. The crowd here was immense, the state house yard was full, and when he closed his address, they gave him three hearty cheers. His speech will be published, it is now preparing for the press.

I met with an acquaintance of mine

here, who formerly lived in Ky, and was there a whig. I told him, thinking he was still a whig, that I was done with the party, that I could no longer vote against men who avowed such good southern sentiments right in the teeth of abolitionists. He replied that he had quit the party some time since, and was forced to it by the fanatical abolition course of the whigs north. He told me that you could not hire a whig to get up on the stump and utter such sentiments

as were boldly proclaimed here to-day.

There is no danger of this union, if the whigs of the south, or the people of the south, will stand by such advocates

as they had here to-day.

The democrats are going to make a hard fight for the state, but I cannot form an opinion as to the result, they have a dreadful long list of names to contend against.

FIRE INSURANCE.

The Hartford Protection Insurance

Co., one of the oldest and said to be one of the most reliable insurance companies in the Union, has failed, utterly failed, and left its insurers, many of them at a time of most need, without anything to show for their so called policies of protection! one of two things must be true of these Insurance Companies, judging from experience and long observation;

either their rates for insuring, reduced by competition and the love of gain, are too low to enable them to conduct a living and successful business, else there must be something in the business of Insurance which dulls the moral sense;

something which prompts men who, as individuals, would scorn to do a dishonest act, to defraud their fellow citizens of hundreds of thousands of dollars

without even the blush of shame mantling their corporation bronzed cheeks. The more we see and learn of the swindling

transactions of corporate bodies, the more earnest are we in endorsing the Democratic doctrine of "equal rights to all—

special privileges to none."

WILL HEAR OF SOMETHING ADVANTAgeous.—If Mrs. Susannah Hedges, whose maiden name was Shepard, will communicate her whereabouts to the editor of the Kentucky State Flag, Paris, Ky., she will hear of something greatly to her ad-

PERIODICALS.

We have had the pleasure of examining a little work, by Dr. A. R. Kinkelin, entitled "Nature's Guide" and find therein much to commend to the attention of both sexes, all ages and classes.

Unlike many of its predecessors and contemporaries of the same style of publication, its language is pure and simple,

alike suitable for the eyes of all and adapted to the comprehension of the plainest

mind, giving warning which if heeded

and advice that if followed would set aside

many of the ills which man is made to inherit by folly and imprudence. There is nothing within the pages of this book that the most sensitive and delicate can object to. Its contents are especially designed as advice to the young, hints to Parents, Guardians and preceptors with regard to the preservation of health and prolongation of life. Price 25 cents.

Address Dr. A. R. Kinkelin, corner of 3rd and Union street, Philadelphia.

We are still receiving the "Sacred Circle," a description of which was given

our readers from the appearance of the first number.

This is a monthly issue, edited by Judge Edmonds, Dr. Dexter and O. G.

Warren. It contains many substantial facts, designed to explain the regulation of the Natural and Spiritual Worlds, founded on spiritual Philosophy and zealous

in the advance of Liberty, and the advancement of truth and sound principle.

SCOTT FARM! FOR SALE.

WISHING to remove to the State of Missouri, I offer at public sale the farm on which I now reside, on Monday, the 25th day of September, containing about 100 acres of first rate land, lying on the waters of Dry Run, Scott County, Kentucky, about four miles North of Georgetown, and about one quarter of a mile east of the Turnpike leading from Georgetown to Covington.

Said farm is in a very fair state of cultivation, with a very good comfortable dwelling, and all necessary out-buildings. It has on it (very convenient to the house), one of the best springs in the county; it has never been so late at any time, that there has not been abundance of running water for more than 500 head of Stock. I also wish to sell at the same time and place, 20 head of Horses;
about 40 head of Cattle; of which are about 20 head of first rate Milch Cows;
about 100 head of Sheep;
Forty or Fifty head of Hogs, his standing crop, &c.

I also wish to sell 110 ACRES of good land, lying some half mile north of this. This tract has no improvements except that the land is nearly all cleared and in cultivation. I will sell the two tracts together or separately to suit purchasers.

Terms will be easy; and made known on day of sale; those wishing to purchase are invited to call and examine the premises for themselves.

VENI VIDI VICI! PULVERMACHER'S Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains!

A RE for the first time, presented to a people of Georgetown and vicinity, as a new, electric and CONVENT mode of applying Electro-Magnetism, in the instant relief and permanent cure of all nervous diseases: Rheumatism, Paralysis of Heart, Pains & Swell'd Joints, Rheum. pains of chest, Neuralgia of the Face, Female Diseases, Deafness, Blindness, General Debility, Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Contracted Limbs, Pains in the Back, Paralysis, Sciatica.

HISTORY.—Pulvermacher's Chains were first introduced into this country, about one year since, in the City of New York, where they were subjected to the most rigid and thorough trial; every hospital in that city, by Professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carrohan who at once discovered that they possessed strange and wonderful power in almost instantly relieving all nervous pain wherever located; and so satisfactory were the results produced, in every case, that their opinions were published through the public press, and thousands have been induced to try them, and in no single instance have they failed to perform all we advertise to do. They are patented in this country, France, England, Germany, Austria and Belgium, and are in use in every hospital in Europe, and also in every hospital of N. Y. City.

No other Medical Agent can produce so many well Authenticated Certificates of cure—not only from intelligent patients, but from Scientific Physicians, and their sale wherever introduced has been unparalleled.
The chains are so constructed as to be worn near the skin, producing a constant current of Electro-Magnetism—can be used by either adults or children never get out of repair, and with proper care will last for years.

Price of Chains, $3 and $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country. A pamphlet of 36 pages always accompanying each chain, and can be had of any agent, gratis.
CAUTION TO LADIES.—Ladies who are enciente are requested not to use them for a great length of time only for a few moments; for by continued use, miscarriage is frequently produced. For Uterine Pains, one end of the chain is to be applied over the abdomen, and the other upon the spine, just above the hips.

Premium Indelible Writing Ink.

I WOULD call the attention of the public, to the above article of Black Writing Ink, which I am now manufacturing from a recipe lately purchased of the original inventor. It flows freely from the Pen—contains no acid and therefore will not corrode steel pens a dissipation long sought for. More over I defy any chemist to remove it from paper after it has been written with, and yet it can be sold at a very low price, entire satisfaction warranted in all cases.

A FINE SCOTT FARM AT PUBLIC SALE.

THE undersigned, Executors of James Carter, dec'd., will expose at Public Sale to the highest bidder, on Friday, the 6th of October next, at the late residence of said dec'd., in Scott county, 7 miles west of Georgetown and 3 miles north of Midway, immediately on the Iron Works Road, the farm upon which said Carter resided at the time of his death, containing of good land. There are about 20 acres of good hemp land on the place, and some 30 acres of good timberland. There is plenty of lasting water on the farm.

The improvements consist of a good substantial brick dwelling, with 3 rooms below and 3 above, and a good cellar, good kitchen and negro house, ice house, good hemp house, corn ribs and stables, and in fact all necessary out-buildings. There is also a fine apple orchard on the place. Any person wishing to examine the farm can be waited on by calling upon J. W. Carter, living on the premises.

There are 80 ACRES of Land adjoining the above tract, if not sold previous to the day of sale, will be attached to it, and the two tracts sold together, which will make a farm of good size, and it will lay almost in a perfect square. Upon this 80 acres, there is also a fine apple orchard on the place. Any person wishing to examine the farm can be waited on by calling upon J. W. Carter, living on the premises.

OUR INVOICES OF PIANO FORTES

are arriving so rapidly that we have been compelled to store ten or twelve during the past week; and, while our sales are increasing weekly, our present ware-rooms are entirely inadequate to our wants. We hope, therefore, that no one wishing to purchase a first rate Piano, this Summer, will fail to take advantage of the extraordinary inducements we are offering at this time; and let us here say our word in regard to Chickering's instruments. This house has been agent for this celebrated factory about twenty years, and we conscientiously think, and therefore positively assert that these Pianos are in all respect equal to what they have ever been, and in some, much superior. We say, without fear of contradiction, that, as a whole, their equal cannot be found in this country.

PUBLIC SALE! OF A FINE SCOTT FARM.

On Wednesday, 27th day of September, 1854,
I WILL (no preventing Providence,) offer at public sale the farm upon which I reside, containing nearly 200 ACRES OF LAND!
Said farm lies half a mile south of Georgetown, in full view of town and college: bounded on the west by the Georgetown and Lexington turnpike; on the north by the Georgetown and Lemon's Mill pike; on the south by Thomas Smarr's land and on the East by D. Howard Smith's land. No better neighborhood in Kentucky. My family physician considers this the most healthy situation he knows of. It is good land, in good repair and mostly in grass; abundance of

CORN AND HEMP LAND.

There are eight or ten beautiful Building Sites upon the farm. Its well watered—indeed the best drinking water in the county. Ponds and springs abundant. A portly and most

COMMODIOUS DWELLING,
with nine rooms and six porches—inhaling healthy breezes in the hottest weather. Good carriage and horse houses; a first rate pair of outle scales—worth $500—covered in. An excellent Barn and Stable, weather-boarded and protected from lightning. A number of fruit trees, and a

HANDSOME VINEYARD, bearing. I have had a number of acres laid off into

BUILDING LOTS
of from four to five acres each, on the Lexington pike, most eligible grounds,—commanding a fine view of Georgetown and a adjacent country, which will be offered separately from the main body of the farm. Any quantity desired will be sold in this way.

Now is the time for persons desiring beautiful improvements upon pretty situations, executed after their own tastes. I will sell also at the same time and place of excellent timber land, lying 9 miles north of Georgetown,—14 miles west of the Cincinnati pike, in the rear of James and Robert Fishes' land, on said pike. Also a considerable variety of Farming Implements, wagons, carts, ploughs, etc.; also an excellent yoke of work cattle and a number of good cows and calves of good stock. The corn, hemp, oats and wheat will be sold, and a lot of Sows, Pigs and Hogs. Also a Fine Family Carriage.

SO ACRE

The friends of the subscriber are very loth to part with him, but he wishes (no regretting to leave the finest "country" in the world,) to remove to Texas, Nebraska, Oregon or Illinois. I would prefer selling at private sale.

EVAN STEVENSON.
Georgetown, Ky.
N. B. Title indisputable, and terms made known day of sale.

THE Frankfort Commonwealth, Kentucky Statesman, Observer & Reporter, & Paris Citizen will please copy to the amount of $10, send papers up to that time to advertiser, and charge of notice.
